

THE HAC

EST. 1537

Since 1537, the Honourable Artillery Company (HAC) has been as one of the United Kingdom's most enduring military institutions—an organisation where tradition, service and ceremony have shaped its identity. Evolving from a society of citizen soldiers into a modern regiment of the British Army and a charity, the HAC has preserved the heritage that makes it unique.

This distinguished history forms the backdrop to one of London's most characterful event settings. At the gateway to the City, the historic Armoury House, its Prince Consort Rooms and the Artillery Garden offer a rare combination: a sense of sanctuary within the urban landscape and a venue where contemporary professionalism meets centuries of tradition.

Today, the HAC continues to play a military, ceremonial and operational role while welcoming businesses and private clients to experience its exceptional hospitality. Hosting an event here offers more than a functional solution; it provides guests with a meaningful connection to history. Whether planning a conference, an executive meeting, a reception, an awards ceremony or a celebration, the setting offers an unmatched sense of occasion.

Within these pages, we invite you to explore a venue where contemporary event requirements are seamlessly supported by a legacy more than 400 years in the making.

TERRY BRIGGS

Thanks to all involved in the Golden Hearts Volume Four Dinner at the HAC. It was a tip-top evening, and I wanted to highlight a few elements that really stood out. Few dinners are better timed and none with better food. The borscht and millet; notable highlights. The staff were top drawer. To have a team that communicates with each other, smiles and then moves about the room with finesse is a rare thing! As to the venue, none better for those with an interest in heritage and regimental procedure. A big well done to all.

GOLDEN HEARTS EVENT GUEST

A huge thank you to the whole team for their incredible support. It was amazing to use the outside garden area for the Military Band performance and wonderful to have an impromptu tour of the venue. Everyone was so amazed by the history and the beauty of the HAC building. We all had a lovely evening, we will definitely consider the HAC again in the near future!
