THE PUMP ROOM, BATH

NEAREST STATION: Bath Spa

The Grand Pump Room was built in the early 1790s, and soon became the destination for high society to meet and ‘take the waters’ from the hot springs while enjoying lavish entertainment. Famous authors such as Jane Austen mentioned it in her novels Northanger Abbey and Persuasion, as where “every creature in Bath was to be seen...”. And Mary Shelley wrote the iconic Frankenstein while staying in lodgings next door. Over 200 years later, most of the neo-classical style and Georgian features remain unchanged – creating the perfect ambience in which to enjoy the quintessentially English custom of afternoon tea.

OUR SUSTAINABILITY PLEDGES

We have partnered with Drappier, the world's first carbon-neutral Champagne house

We celebrate English sparkling wines, working with some of the best vineyards in the country

Our house beer is supplied by Freedom Brewery, the only beer recommended by the Sustainable Restaurant Association

All our teas are ethically and responsibly sourced

Our coffee comes from an organic cooperative of smallholders in Peru and from family-run single estates in Guatemala and Colombia

All our milk is British Red Tractor-certified

Up to 90% of seasonal fruit and veg on our menus are British

We only use British-harvested rapeseed oil in cooking

We champion local produce, with all fresh fruit, vegetables, cheese and dairy coming from within a 48 mile radius of our venues

We celebrate signature seasonal English apples at all our cafes. We offer a free bowl with all our meetings packages

All our fresh eggs are British free-range

We only source British meat and poultry

All our bacon is British-reared and dry-cured

Our signature smoked salmon is caught and smoked by an artisan British smokehouse to our recipe

We only use pole and line-caught tuna, which is a sustainable fishing method used to catch tuna, one fish at a time

All our fresh and frozen prawns are Marine Stewardship Council-certified

We only use British-milled flour

We have set ourselves a target to reduce food waste by 20%, with disposable packaging audited by the specialist NGO

Our bottled water is naturally-sourced Harrogate. It is Britain's oldest bottled water, discovered in 1571, first bottled in 1740. It is a zero-waste-to-landfill company

Our nominated charity is Beyond Food, a social enterprise that helps those who are most at risk of homelessness to gain meaningful employment in hospitality

By using the freshest, best quality ingredients sourced responsibly from local suppliers, in ways that benefit the environment and create better experiences for our customers and the community
