

116
PALL MALL

An unforgettable day in an extraordinary setting

116 Pall Mall is one of London's most majestic wedding venues

With a range of stunning spaces and exclusive hire of the building on weekends, 116 Pall Mall is the perfect venue for your wedding ceremony or civil partnership. Originally designed by John Nash, the architect behind Marble Arch and Brighton Pavilion, it dates from the early 1820s and is Grade I listed.

The glittering 15-foot handmade Regency chandelier above the main staircase was a gift from George IV to commemorate the Battle of Waterloo and the staircase has seen many couples marry on its steps.

In recent years Downton Abbey has been filmed in the building, as have scenes in The Dark Knight, Gandhi and Foyle's War. Even James Bond author Ian Fleming was a regular diner at 116 Pall Mall.

As well as the function rooms, the ornate and sweeping grand staircase and the gallery can also be personalised for a special wedding day. It is sure to make a stunning statement for any bridal party.

We have a beautiful private garden which is the ideal setting for your photographs and we're located just a stone's throw from some of London's most famous landmarks – including Buckingham Palace, St James's Park and Trafalgar Square.
