The Great Hall

Capacity

-  Receptions - 250
-  Dinners - 120
-  Conferences - 140

The Great Hall is a striking and elegant space, featuring panelled Japanese Oak and opening directly onto the Terrace. Bathed in natural light from stunning Waterford crystal chandeliers, the room is thoughtfully bowed towards the West, allowing guests to take in the surrounding beauty.

A highlight of the Hall is the magnificent Holbein painting of Henry VIII, which commemorates the unification of the Barbers' and Surgeons' Companies in 1541/2.

This historic and elegant space is perfect for a wide range of events, including conferences, seminars, receptions, and gala dinners. With its rich history and timeless elegance, the Great Hall provides the ideal setting for an unforgettable Christmas party or corporate celebration. Whether hosting an intimate gathering or a grand affair, the Great Hall offers a sophisticated backdrop for any occasion.

The Reception Room

Capacity

👤 Receptions - 100

☀️ Dinners - 20

📊 Conferences - 55

For a more intimate celebration, the Reception Room offers a warm and elegant atmosphere, perfect for smaller gatherings, private dinners, or receptions. This versatile space provides a charming setting where guests can enjoy a relaxed yet lively ambiance. With its inviting atmosphere, the Reception Room is also ideal for post-dinner entertainment, music, and dancing, ensuring a memorable celebration from start to finish.
